Tuesday night the Orpheus Stock Company presented the Drama The Passion Slave in four acts to the people of St. Johns. The Characters were selected from local talent and were exceptionally well cast. All characters in this play are good and give those who take them a good opportunity to act to the best of their ability.

The comedy of the play was fine and was an excellent change from the seriousness of the same and when not in tears the audience was roaring with laughter.

This is the first of a series of plays that will be presented to the public during the winter by this company.
